Curiosity Will Have to Wait.

The special grand jury which is investigating charges of municipal corruption reconvened yesterday morning at 11 o'clock and was in session for two hours and a half, adjourning until the same hour this morning. Juryman C. E.

Three witnesses were heard yesterday,

Mr. A. Beirne Blair, Mayor Richard M.

Taylor and City Accountant Carlton Mc-

Carthy. Mr. Blair was before the jury about an hour and the other two about a half hour each. Mr. McCarthy on coming out said he thought they were through with him. Mayor Taylor's testimony was delivered so vigorously that the sound of his voice, but not the dif-ferent words, could be heard distinctly in the corridors of the City Hall adjoining the grand jury room. The character of Mr. Blair's testimony is not known. As his partner, Mr. Eichelberger, was also summoned yesterday morning, it was suggested that the grand jury's inquiry had to do with the recent placing of liability insurance by the Grounds and John C. Robertson, Mr. Clyde W. Saunders, Mr. Miles M. Martin, Mr. David A.

Ainslie, Mr. J. Smith Brockenbrough, Mr. W. F. Jenkins, Mr. Pritz Sitterding, Major James D. Patton, and Councilman

John R. Grimes.

It is probable that several days will be devoted to the hearing of these and other witnesses. No further indictments are anticipated in the next two or three days, at least. It is believed that the grand jury will find that it has entered upon a large task in the investigation of the granting of franchises to street railway and telephone companies in Richmond in the last few years. KING CASE POSTPONED.

A GENERAL INVESTIGATION

Board Will Meet Again This 'Afternoo and Begin a Searching Inquiry Into All the Suspected Immunity to Gamblers in Second District. Officer Wyatt Must Answer Charges.

"The board unaimously finds from the evidence adduced that Captain James B. Angle is exonerated from the charge of tssuing any orders to his men not to make raids on gambling houses or bar-rooms until first notifying him."

This resolution, passed by the Police Police District were called as witnesses, expresses the net result of the investigation of the board of the charges against Captain Angle made by Acting Sergeant

The board will meet at 5 o'clock this nfternoon to enter upon "a general police investigation," as one of the members of the board put it. The features of this investigation will be a thoroughgoing probing of all suspected immunity granted gamblers in the Second District. the charge that a bartender carried $100 to Captain Angle will be refuted by affi-davits. Charges against Officer Wyatt will be looked into.

The board convened at 6 o'clock. The Mayor, Chief Howard and Messrs. Mc-Carthy, Landerkin. Bosher, Manning, Jacob and West were present.

Mr. Manning opened the meeting with statement in reference to the published report that he had learned of a rumor that somebody had said that he carried 100 to Captain Angle. A. S. Brine was his informer. Mr. Brine was at once summoned. The bartender, he said, was now at Ocean View, and is ed James W. Bacigalupo.

There was some discussion as to the need of a stenographer, and it was decided to SERGEANT TALLEY.

Sergeant Talley was the first witness.
Captain Angle and Sergeant Wyatt, the two interested parties, were called in.
Mr. Bosher asked Sergeant Talley if he orders from Captain Angle as

Mr. Landerkin: "Did you ever report 1 nambling place to Captain Angle?"
Surgeant Tailey: "No. sir."
Mr. Landerkin: "Would you have consulted the captain?"
Sergeant Tailey: "If possible."
Captain Angle (to Sergeant Tailey): "Did you ever, in the eighteen years you have been with me, hear me issue orders of the character of those charged by Mr. Wyatt, that no officer should raid gambling places and saloons without first netifying me?"
Sergeant Tailey: "No. sir, I never did."
WYATT ASKS QUESTIONS.
Mr. Wyatt then asked Mr. Tailey one or two questions, which the latter answered satisfactorily, and he was ex-
